Profile

Creative director and singer-songwriter working in contemporary popular music, from a doctorate in behavioural ecology. I coined and defined sci pop: using science and scientific thinking for innovation in the aesthetics, narrative, making and performance of contemporary pop music. I direct, and I perform in what I direct. Sixteen years in scientific inquiry and substantial experience translating it into art. My Honorary Visiting Fellowship at the ANU Centre for the Public Awareness of Science carries the research line science in music and popular culture.

Already working in Europe

- German public television. UFA Show & Factual GmbH (Cologne, a Fremantle company) licensed the Kangaroo Time footage in 2024 for Wer weiß denn sowas?! (ARD, Das Erste), illustrating a quiz question on the research behind it. Four-year licence, credited “WELI - Kangaroo Time, from ANU”.
 - German press. Süddeutsche Zeitung covered Kangaroo Time, 2024: sueddeutsche.de/panorama/kaenguru-tiere-doktorarbeit-kurioses-anruf-bei-australien-1.6401819.
 - Athens Science Festival, with SciCo Greece, May 2025. My workshop Science and the People, delivered to a European audience.
 - Falling Walls Engage, Berlin, 2025. Top 30 worldwide, for Science for the People.
 - Italian citizenship, so no visa, permit or sponsorship is required to work or travel in the EU.

(2023), Behavioral Ecology 34(6), 1002 to 1012.
 - Kangaroo Time (2024) was made from that research. The song I co-wrote and the film I wrote, cast, directed and performed, with a dance cast of twenty-four drawn from multicultural Canberra. AAAS Dance Your PhD Overall Winner 2024, the overall prize across all four categories. Watch · Kids edit
 - 238+ media features across five continents, including The Guardian, Smithsonian Magazine, NPR, BBC, Science and Cosmos. Independent monitoring, Isentia 2024.
 - Its reception is why I founded WildWooHoo, the studio I direct, to give the method a standing home.
